

Rebecca Müller

M.Sc. Physics | Patent Attorney Trainee

rebecca.mueller@kspartner.de

vCard

Areas of Practice

Trainee for national and international patents and utility models with a focus on physical technology, measuring and automation technique, heating and air-conditioning technology, electrical engineering, medical technology as well as trademarks and designs; Prosecution, infringement and validity litigation, licensing and law relating to inventions of employees.

Languages:

German, English, Spanish

Professional Development

since 2021 Patent Attorney Trainee at KEIL &
SCHAAFHAUSEN

2018-2020 Master studies of theoretical Physics at the Ruhr-
University Bochum

2015-2018 Bachelor studies of Physics at the Ruhr-University
Bochum

Personal Information

Born 1997 in Bochum.

Rebecca Müller studied Physics with specialisation on theoretical solid state Physics at the Ruhr-University Bochum. During her studies, she focused in particular on the behavior of superconductors in non-equilibrium. She gained professional experience in the field of IT administration in addition to her studies. In her free time, she is especially enthusiastic about music.